CONCERTS

The Big Apple Meets the Big Peach

Using songs from Eileen's critically acclaimed album, Big City Love, and tunes by Georgia composers and singers, she weaves humorous stories about the differences between life in New York City and Atlanta. Includes fresh arrangements of classics such as New York, New York, Manhattan, Southern Woman's Blues, Georgia on My Mind, Sweet Georgia Brown and other favorites as well as her own compositions.

Harry and Hoagy

A celebration of Harold Arlen and Hoagy Carmichael - two of the finest composers of the Great American Songbook. Eileen sings favorites such as Over the Rainbow, Come Rain or Come Shine, One for My Baby, That Old Black Magic, Skylark, Stardust, The Nearness of You, and When the Sun Comes Out. She weaves her concert with amusing trivia about the composers, lyricists, and songs.

Wild Women Don't Have No Blues

A little bit racy and a whole lot of fun, Eileen sings her way through ten reasons to sing the blues. Using her own compositions, classic blues songs, and heartfelt ballads, she takes the audience on an engaging ride with verve and humor. Includes songs like Built for Comfort, I Need a Little Sugar in My Bowl, Hot Flash Blues, It's Easy to Remember, Laugh Laugh Laugh, and, of course, Wild Women Don't Have No Blues.

Mad About the Mouse!

For Disney® lovers of all ages, Eileen's special jazzy arrangements of popular Disney* tunes are great for nostalgic adults or fun-loving families. Family concerts are geared toward kids, with dress up costumes and audience participation. Adult concerts are all about the music! Includes songs like Under the Sea, Almost There, Everybody Wants to be a Cat, She's a Tramp, Cruella de Ville, and many more greats.
